

Sesame Place Philadelphia To Offer New Paid Summer Internship Program For Employees to “Earn While You Learn”

Program runs May through August, providing payment, opportunities for college credit, and professional development

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., (January 12, 2024) – Sesame Place® Philadelphia, the first theme park in the U.S. based entirely on the award-winning show Sesame Street® and the first theme park in the world to be recognized as a Certified Autism Center, has implemented a new summer internship program. Internships will be both paid and eligible for college credit where applicable.

Internships will begin in May and run through August, built to fit the schedules of college students. Potential interns have the option to select one of four paths that match their skills and interests: Revenue, Operations, Management, or Entertainment. Interns will also be provided opportunities for professional development, consisting of weekly seminars, networking, skill development, and mentorship from park leaders.

While internships are geared toward college students, anyone interested in the theme park or hospitality industry is encouraged to apply for this unique, in-person learning experience.

“Here at Sesame Place, we always encourage our Ambassadors to learn and grow,” said Park President Cathy Valeriano. “This is an invaluable experience for anyone looking for a career in theme park management or hospitality, and we look forward to welcoming the next generation of industry leaders.”
